

GERMAN COMEDIAN APPEARS ON STAGE IN PARIS AGAIN

French Applaud, Which Is Taken as Sign That War Has Receded into Past Definitely—British Newspaper Men Are Honored by Bulgaria

By MILTON BRONER

LONDON, April 27.—When a comic figure of a German appears on a stage in Paris, the war may be said finally to have receded into the past. The British newspaper men are so sure of this that they are so sure that the French are not so sure of the German as to make believe that the German is a comic figure.

You don't just about folks that you fear. They are too much of an instance for that.

The other evening, in Paris, a comic German had the traditional knock-out punch which he had been given, when introduced to people, "A regular thick head, a good account when he spoke French."

The audience was as much as study as the man who spoke French. Many of the older people didn't seem to see the joke. But the younger men, the men who had been in the trenches, seemed to have had the time of their lives, laughed until their sides ached.

Collect for Surviving Children
The speaking of Germany, the powerful committees of influential people in England, and the fact that the German people are so powerful influences at work in the whole thing, is a sign that the war is so rich as can be thought of.

The point to the tremendous number of German survivors of the war, the black widow and early spring months away from their own country, was a warning.

Nobody who has been in Germany in recent months and has taken on the trouble to walk away from the fashionable streets of the cities, can deny the awful suffering it with its slanders.

SUPPORT OF EXPERTS' PRO-GRAM IS URGED

Marx Says Germany Has No Intention of Joining League.

DUESSELDORF, Germany, April 27.—Dr. Wilhelm Marx, the Chancellor, today, in addressing a campaign address here made a strong plea for the carrying out of the program set forth in the report of the experts who recently investigated the economic and financial condition of Germany.

Dr. Marx declared the fulfillment of the terms of the program would be the best method for restoring the economic and financial condition of Germany. It would be, he said, to the advantage of both countries.

The Chancellor's speech throughout was couched in a conciliatory tone, although he emphasized that Germany was Germany, and that a return of Germany's sovereignty was the first prerequisite of the plan of the experts.

Dr. Marx said Germany had no intention of trying to enter the League of Nations as it presently constituted. He said that while the League was a necessary part of the international system, it was not a necessary part of the international system in which all nations were treated with absolute equality.

Concerning the League of Nations, Germany had decided to accept the League of Nations as it presently constituted. He said that while the League was a necessary part of the international system, it was not a necessary part of the international system in which all nations were treated with absolute equality.

Germany Government Warns People Against Extremists.

BELLEVILLE, April 27.—In a proclamation, the Government warned the German people against the extremists who opposed acceptance of the reparations experts' reports, and asked this one of the chief Government issues in the Reichstag election campaign, now on at full with the election date only eight days away.

The proclamation points out that rejection of the experts' plan would develop a crisis which might eventually involve Germany in a new world war.

In the event the League of Nations is created, the experts' report is the basis of the long-run international surrender to Germany's economic conditions.

Friend Quotes One-Time Emperor Freely in New Book

TELLS OF FLIGHT

Wilhelm Went to Holland To Avoid Splitting Germany

BRISLIN, April 27.—Former Emperor Wilhelm, in a new book published by Lieutenant Colonel Niemann, a personal friend, a quiet signing, President Wilson in the world war. Niemann was attached to German headquarters during the war and accompanied Wilhelm in his flight to Holland.

The former emperor is credited with having written to Niemann that it was perfectly clear to him from the beginning that President Wilson desired to see Germany crushed and that the United States would not permit the Kaiser to remain in power.

He was ready to fight the internal enemy when the revolution broke out, but I found myself deceived by the army leaders themselves. Many German leaders thought I ought to have sought death in the battlefield but I think this trouble of committing suicide would have been useless.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT OPPOSITION GROWING

NEW YORK.—The progress which the bill, which would abolish capital punishment in New York state, made in the assembly this year, T. Channing Moore (R.), from Westchester County, has announced that he will make an active campaign to secure its passage for the rest of the year, and it is probable that it will pass the 1925 legislature.

Mr. Moore reports that throughout the state he has found an overwhelming sentiment in favor of the bill, and that public officials and officers of penal institutions are in accord. The bill, which has been out of committee for some time, is expected to be taken up for discussion on the floor of the assembly.

Smaller Crowds Attend League Football Games Owing to Cup Final

Largest Game at Chelsea and Leeds United Game—Manchester Defeats West Ham by 2 to 1—Cardiff City Wins From Birmingham

LONDON, April 27. (Canadian Press Cable)—The cup final detracted from the interest in league football yesterday afternoon and no doubt partly accounted for smaller attendance. The largest crowd was twenty thousand at the Chelsea and Leeds United game. Chelsea, led by Brown, defeated Sunderland by 2 to 1. Eighteen thousand spectators saw Manchester City defeat West Ham by 2 to 1.

Attendance of fifteen thousand at each center were registered at Cardiff City-Birmingham, won by the former 2 to 0 and at the Liverpool-Lancaster City game, won by the latter 1 to 0. Birmingham met with an early misfortune at Cardiff when Waddock broke his nose in a collision and suffered slight concussion. Arsenal defeated Preston 2 to 0 and in this match Harrison hurt his back and was out of the game.

In the second division, Oldham Athletic, playing at home, met defeat by Southampton 2 to 1. The latter first defeat since January. Hastings, Southampton, and Arsenal all scored three goals. Oldham, however, scored three goals. Oldham, however, scored three goals.

Realizing that victory was their only hope in league football, they fought on bravely. Birmingham, however, scored three goals. Oldham, however, scored three goals.
